1 Chairman Church. Would you please take the oath?

2 Do you swear that everything you will testify to in
3 these proceedings shall be the truth, the whole truth and 4 nothing but the truth, so help you God?

5 Mr. O'Connell. I do.

6 TESTIMONY OF JAMES P. O'CONNELL

7 Mr. Schwarz. Would you state your name?

8 Mr. O'Connell. My name is James P. O'Connell.

9 Mr. Schwarz. And what is your address?

10 Mr. O'Connell. 1333 Elsinore Avenue, McLean, Virginia,

11 22101.

12 Mr. Schwarz. Before we proceed substantively let me
13 just put on the record some matters.

14 First, you understand that you have a right to counsel?

15 Mr. O'Connell. I understand that. I just read it.

16 Mr. Schwarz. And you should also be advised that you
17 have your rights under the Constitution, including your
18 rights under the Fifth Amendment, if at any point you wish
19 to assert whatever rights that you do have that are under those 20 Constitutional provisions.

21 Do you understand that?

22 Mr. O'Connell. Yes.

23 Mr. Schwarz. And if at any time you feel that you
24 need an attorney you have the right to ask for an 25 attorney, do you understand that?

1 pills?

2 Mr. O'Connell. The man that created them is Dr. Raymond
3 Trichler.

4 Mr. Schwarz. Did he hand the pills to you?

5 Mr. O'Connell. Yes.

6 Mr. Schwarz. Did he know what the pills were for?

7 Mr. O'Connell. I don't think so.

8 Mr. Schwarz. But he knew they were illegal?

9 Mr. O'Connell. He knew they were illegal.

10 Mr. Schwarz. And were the pills not tried out on some 11 experimental subjects in the U.S.?

12 Mr. O'Connell. Yes.

13 Mr. Schwarz. And proven to be lethal?

14 Mr. O'Connell. Well, to the extent -- I will tell you
15 that, we used them on hamsters.

16 Mr. Schwarz. And also monkeys?

17 Mr. O'Connell. No, as far as I know, just the hamsters.

18 Mr. Schwarz. But anyway, you knew they were lethal.

19 Mr. O'Connell. Yes.

20 Mr. Schwarz. And you handed them over to Rosselli?

21 Mr. O'Connell. Yes.

22 Mr. Schwarz. And had the Technical Services made poison
23 pills before as far as you know?

24 Mr. O'Connell. As far as I know. I have no idea.

25 This was my first experience with that sort of thing.

1 your possession, that might give you a more accurate timing than
2 I am giving to you now.

3 Mr. Madigan. We don't have it presently.

4 Mr. O'Connell. I am sure it is over there.

5 Mr. Wides. With regard to the discussion of authorization,
6 would it have been following on Mr. Madigan's point, that this
7 was a fairly serious and unusual operation that you were given,
8 and that you would have asked, is this authorized? Or how did
9 the question of Mr. Dulles authorizing it come up, as best you
10 recall?

11 Mr. O'Connell. I told you, I knew that Mr. Dulles -- I was 12 told that Mr. Dulles had authorized it, I can't say quite when 13 it happened, but I know I was told.

14 Mr. Wides. You testified this morning -- I don't want
15 to put words in your mouth -- I thought you testified that you
16 were sure that Mr. Edwards told you at this meeting when he first
17 gave you the assignment that you were not sure that Mr. Bissell's
18 also mentioned that when you later met in your office.

19 Mr. O'Connell. I would stick with that, yes. I think it
20 probably was when I -- when Colonel Edwards called me he 21 said, this probably has the blessing of the DCI.

22 Mr. Wides. Do you know if Dr. V. S. Roosevelt, who 23 was head of the Technical Services Division at the time, was 24 witnessing about this?

25 Mr. O'Connell. I wouldn't want to bet my life that he

1 wasn't. But he was at a meeting when the bills were delivered,
2 and Dr. Treichler came over to Colonel Edwards' office.

3 Mr. Wides. But you don't recall whether you ever knew
4 that ~~Roosevelt~~ knew what it was in connection with as distinct
5 from merely knowing it was a lethal pill, is that right?

6 Mr. O'Connell. I can't say -- to my personal knowledge,
7 the discussion never came up when I was there. I don't think
8 he is a dummy, and I don't think ~~Treichler~~ is any dummy, and 9 I think they had a general idea.

10 But as far as I know they were never officially told.

11 Mr. Wides. To your knowledge, before you went overseas
12 no one else in the office of Security, Mr. Bannerman, Mr.
13 White or Mr. Hall, none of those men or anyone else knew about 14 the project, only yourself and Mr. Edwards?

15 Mr. O'Connell. Well, I would say this, to my knowledge
16 they were never briefed. However, I think I brought up an 17 incident this morning where Colonel Edwards was on leave and 18 Colonel King called Mr. Bannerman, who was his 19 deputy, and assumed that Bannerman knew all about it and started
20 talking about it, what are we going to do about 21 this -- I don't know what the conversation was about. And 22 Bannerman called in and said, what was this all about?

23 Mr. Wides. This was in 1962 before you left?

24 Mr. O'Connell. Yes. It was while I was up in the office.

25 And I said, I don't have the authority to brief you on it.

1 Mr. Wides. Were you ever aware, whether you were formally
2 notified or just got a rumble or heard through the grapevine,
3 that the CIA was getting some information about these threats,
4 or some information about groups who might pose a threat in the
5 Washington area, not from Bureau sources or military sources,
6 but from CIA sources, did you ever hear any rumble of that kind?

7 Mr. O'Connell. Yes.

8 Mr. Wides. What did you hear?

9 Mr. O'Connell. The only way I got involved in it was that 10 Howard Osborn would have a nine o'clock meeting every 11 morning with his deputies.

12 And they had a proprietary organization in the Office of 13 Security which I think had informants.

14 Now, I don't know their identities, but it would come out
15 in the meeting, and they would have some names for them. I
16 couldn't tell you what they were.

17 Mr. Madigan. What was the proprietary called?

18 Mr. O'Connell. The name that strikes me -- and I
19 know part of it, but I couldn't tell you exactly -- I think it
20 was Anderson --

21 Mr. Madigan. Anderson Stuart?

22 Mr. O'Connell. Anderson Stuart, something like that.

23 Mr. Wides. You say you think they had informants?

24 Mr. O'Connell. They obviously did, I guess, because the 25 way this would come out, so-and-so advised at a meeting last

2 Mr. Wides. If you associate that with ~~Anderson~~
3 you must have been told more than just, we have an informant.
4 How would it be discussed at the meeting, through this

6 Mr. O'Connell. No, it usually would be the Deputy

8 Mr. Wides. Victor White?

9 Mr. O'Connell. Victor White.

10 Mr. Wides. And what would he say about how ~~Anderson~~
11 fitted into the picture?

12 Mr. O'Connell. That never came up. I just drew that 13 conclusion, that they had potential.

14 Mr. Wides. Why would you assume that they used a proprie-
15 tary as opposed to just having some agents penetrate a group?
16 Why would you think in terms of their using the ~~Anderson~~ --

17 Mr. O'Connell. I can tell you what I think.

18 First of all, I wouldn't want to use government employees.

19 Mr. Wides. Why couldn't the CIA personnel just run

21 Mr. O'Connell. That is in fact what they were doing.

6 Mr. O'Connell. No.

7 Mr. Madigan. You never heard of anything like that?

8 Mr. O'Connell. Nothing of that, no.

9 Mr. Madigan. Did you ever run across a fellow by

12 Mr. O'Connell. No.

13 Mr. Madigan. You never heard of the name?

14 Mr. O'Connell. I never heard of the name.

15 Mr. Madigan. Did you handle the Agency contact with Mr.
16 Maheu about having him coordinate or set up or be involved

17 in the supplying of a female to this foreign leader back in 1959?

18 Mr. O'Connell. A couple of them, as a matter of fact.

20 Mr. O'Connell. Yes.

21 Mr. Madigan. What was your involvement in that? Am I

12 Mr. O'Connell. Well, the request came to the Security.

13 Mr. Madigan. It came down to you?

14 Mr. O'Connell. It came through Colonel Edwards.

15 Mr. Madigan. To you?

16 Mr. O'Connell. Yes. And the requirement was a certain type
17 female who would attract this foreign leader. He wanted female
18 companionship.

19 Mr. Madigan. The leader?

20 Mr. O'Connell. The leader did.

21 Mr. Madigan. So did you contact Maheu directly?

22 Mr. O'Connell. Yes.

23 Mr. Wides. In this instance you were talking about

24 a leader who would be in America, or to supply companionship
25 wherever the leader was abroad? &

1 Mr. O'Connell. He was visiting New York, and it was
2 proposed to be a state visit, and so forth. And he really
3 wanted some female companionship. And his case officer, the 4 Agency's case officer that was handling the leader, said,
5 let's stick to business while you are in New York. And we will
6 take you out to the West Coast, and that is going to be a
7 pleasure trip, and we will see that you meet the right people.

8 So Maheu lined up this young lady, who was a starlet, a
9 little cutie, and they knew the type he liked, size and 10 everything.

11 So, they threw a cocktail party for him, very informal
12 cocktail party.

13 Mr. Madigan. Maheu did?

14 Mr. O'Connell. It was a fellow named Gregg Bartzner. He 15 used to be married to some very famous actress, and he knows
16 just about anything and everything that walks in skirts in L.A.
17 and Hollywood.

18 So Maheu called Gregg and asked him if he could come up
19 with something according to certain specs. And he did. And she 20 was placed in the right atmosphere, at the right time and the 21 leader went head over heels in love with her, to the extent
22 that it was beyond what we planned. He really fell in love with 23 her.

24 Mr. Madigan. Was a fellow named Norman Paul involved
25 in this?

146

1 Mr. O'Connell. No. Normal Paul at one time was the
2 head of the Division that I mentioned a little while ago. But
3 he wasn't involved in it

4 So what we thought was going to be a passing fancy, he
5 decided he had to go back to New York, and he insisted that she
6 go back with him.

7 Well, this was getting a little embarrassing, because here
8 he is the head of his country, and he has got this gal on the 9 strings.

10 So, we agreed to it and she agreed to it, but we had to keep
11 her in one hotel -- she was staying at the Waldorf-
12 Astoria and he was staying in another place. And we got a
13 house out in Long Island so they could have their rendezvous,
14 and they would spend some time together.

15 Mr. Madigan. Was that an Agency house?

16 Mr. O'Connell. No, we rented the house from a private 17 individual who was a friend of somebody who was with the 18 Agency.

19 Mr. Madigan. Did you handle that?

20 Mr. O'Connell. The field office handled that, the 21 New York field office.

22 Mr. Madigan. Of the Office of Security?

23 Mr. O'Connell. They handled procuring the house out in 24 Long Island. And then they also supplied people to stay with 25 the young lady while she was in New York, because they didn't

1 want to have her running around -- it wasn't holding her
2 against her will, it was just to give her somebody that could
3 assist her in any requirements she had while she was waiting for 4 the leader.

5 Mr. Madigan. And was that the end of that particular
6 project that you recall?

7 Mr. O'Connell. That was the end of it, except that we had
8 some repercussions, where he went back to his country
9 and was lovesick, and he was going to give up the throne,
10 which would have caused all sorts of consternation in the Agency,
11 because that was the last guy that the Agency wanted to leave.

12 But he was communicating with her for a while, and then
13 eventually we got her a job in a local musical -- that is 14 really all that she was interested in, trying to make it in the 15 theater. And they drifted off, and she subsequently married.

16 Mr. Wides. Did the Agency monitor the mail between him
17 and the lady, either before she got it or after she got it?

18 Mr. O'Connell. Yes.

19 Mr. Wides. Before? Did they intercept the mail, or how was 20 the mail handled, through special channels?

21 Mr. O'Connell. We set up a post office box at his request,
22 and we serviced the box.

23 Mr. Wides. And would you look at the mail before it was 24 passed on?

25 Mr. O'Connell. I wouldn't --

2 Mr. O'Connell. The agency.

3 Mr. Wides. Did the leader know that?

4 Mr. O'Connell. No.

5 Mr. Wides. And how did the letters go back and forth?

6 Mr. O'Connell. I don't know. We would just turn it over

7 to the Division.

8 Mr. Wides. Did she understand that the Agency was some-

9 how involved in the passage of return mail from the lady

10 to the world leader, that she just didn't drop it on the 11 mailbox on the corner?

12 Mr. O'Connell. She delivered it to somebody up in the field

13 office, as I recall -- don't hold me to that, but I think that

14 was it -- and then it was sent down to headquarters.

15 Mr. Wides. Was it your impression that the Agency read

16 that mail, too, on its way back?

17 Mr. O'Connell. I would imagine so, because it got out of 18 our control.

19 Mr. Wides. Let me go back.

20 With regard to the mail coming in, is it your imagination,

21 for do you have information that the Agency was looking

5 Mr. O'Connell. Yes.

6 Mr. Wides. And as far as you know without either party being 7 aware of the fact?

8 Mr. O'Connell. Yes.

9 Mr. Madigan. You said there was a second instance.
10 Was there a second instance which involved a female
11 in this country, or was it sending one overseas?

12 Mr. O'Connell. The girl was recruited in this country, but 13 she was sent overseas.

14 Mr. Madigan. And that was the leader you had told us about 15 earlier off the record?

16 Mr. O'Connell. Yes.

17 Mr. Madigan. And was that entire situation handled overseas
18 when you once got over there?

19 Mr. O'Connell. Yes.

20 Mr. Madigan. Was there any business of the leader
21 coming back here with her?

22 Mr. O'Connell. Not with her. He came back sometime, maybe
23 a year later, and wanted to know whether he could see her
24 again. And we made arrangements for her to attend the party
25 that was given by Kay Star, the singer. And they threw a

2 And we had that gal, we got in touch with her again, and she did
3 attend the party. But it was a social affair, and there was
4 no operation involved in it.

5 Mr. Madigan. Did Maheu set that up?

6 Mr. O'Connell. Yes.

7 Mr. Mdigan. Both the original contact and the later party
8 in San Francisco?

9 Mr. O'Connell. Yes.

10 Mr. Madigan. And were those the only two times now that 11 he was involved in the operations field?

12 Mr. O'Connell. Oh, no. He did a lot of other things.

13 Mr. Madigan. Let me ask you this question.

14 When Maheu was having his problems with the authorities,
15 was there any reference back to his involvement in those kind of 16 activities, or was the only discussion about his role in 17 the so-called assassination plot?

18 Mr. O'Connell. Well, I am not even so sure that they got 19 into that aspect of it. It was just that he was involved
20 to the extent that he had set up the operation against Rowan,
21 or he was the one that got in touch with DuBois to do it.

22 Mr. Wides. When did you come back from overseas?

23 Mr. O'Connell. July of 1965.

24 Mr. Wides. After you came back did you learn of a time,
25 either after you came back or very shortly before you came

2 Mr. O'Connell. Never, to my knowledge he never got
3 involved in that, officially or otherwise.

4 Mr. Wides. Or surreptitious entry?

5 Mr. O'Connell. He did one surreptitious entry for us once.

6 Mr. Wides. What were the specifics of that?

7 Mr. O'Connell. There were a group of Iranian students.

8 The Agency was sponsoring them, and they were going to the

9 Georgetown School of Linguistics. And they were staying

10 in a rooming house up there right outside of Georgetown some-
11 here. And one of the students came to the case officer.

12 and said that one of the group was acting very suspiciously,
13 taking a lot of notes where they were not supposed to be taking
14 notes, or certainly after operational briefings, and he would go
15 back to his room and he would write voluminous notes. And 16 he thought that was very strange that this guy was not acting
17 as he should.

18 And that aroused the suspicion of the case officer.
19 And they wanted to know whether we would get in and photo-
20 graph what he was writing to see whether he was really
21 violating his agreement.

22 So I called Maheu and he went up to the rooming house, and 23 he went to the people who owned the house and asked if they 24 had a room to rent and she had one. And he did know where the 25 students were staying. And she showed him one room. And

160

1 he said, anything up on the next floor? And as luck would
2 have it, she had the adjacent room.

3 So he brought what would appear to be a suitcase up there,
4 which was his photographic equipment. And we knew the students
5 were in school, and ~~the case officer~~ was going to alert us if 6 they came back, so he wouldn't get caught in the act.

7 And he went in, it was a very simple matter. It was
8 a tin box that he could open with a paper clip and he took it out
9 and photographed it, and put the case back in the drawer and 10 locked up and left.

11 But ~~the case officer~~ was a gal, a woman. And she was 12 looking at one part of the school over there. And this guy
13 comes out the back door. And as Maheu was coming down the 14 stairs the students were coming up, with a matter of maybe
15 a split second timing.

16 Mr. Madigan. This wasn't Mendoz?

17 Mr. O'Connell. No. ~~This was a DDP case officer.~~

18 Mr. Wides. What period was this that we are talking
19 about?

20 Mr. O'Connell. This would have been about 1955.

21 Mr. Wides. And other than that, and the two incidents
22 involving female companionship, what other kinds of sensitive
23 things would he undertake? Was that in the period that you
24 were paying him 500 a month?

25 Mr. O'Connell. We stopped paying the 500 way back when he

1 nature as opposed to routine?

2 Mr. O'Connell. We had word that they wanted to --

3 apparently this foreign leader had visited the Kremlin, and we
4 were reasonably certain -- he was quite a lady's man, and he
5 liked just about any time to be accommodated.

6 So, we knew that he went to the Kremlin and stayed at the 7 Kremlin. And the Division wanted us to come up with a simulated
8 photograph or a film that showed him going through the act of 9 taking on a female. And they simulated a back drop that 10 looked like it was in a room in the Kremlin, and outside
11 you could see the towers and everything, and the furniture was 12 according to what they had.

13 And this was all done by people that knew generally what 14 they looked like.

15 Now, we got Bob to make that film.

16 Mr. Wides. Is it correct that the Agency knew that the 17 Soviets had made a film of the foreign leader when he was in 18 Russia and was hoping to have a counterfeit film which they would 19 circulate in the country, thereby making the foreign leader
20 angry at the Soviets, was that the purpose?

21 Mr. O'Connell. I don't know whether they knew that the 22 Soviets had made the film. But the purpose of the exercise
23 was to have a film circulated in his own country, or 24 neighboring countries, that would make him quite upset with 25 the Soviets.

1 Mr. Wides. You mean they thought that the Russians
2 had made a film?

3 Mr. O'Connell. Yes, to embarrass him.

4 Mr. Madigan. And that was accomplished as far as you know?

5 Mr. O'Connell. The film was made, but they never did
6 release it, because things started to get better with the 7 leader, and they felt that they wouldn't use it.

8 Mr. Madigan. Were Agency facilities used by Maheu for 9 the production of this thing?

10 Mr. O'Connell. No. I hired a small independent studio in 11 Los Angeles.

12 Mr. Madigan. And did Agency officials fly out there,
13 the ones that knew about the backdrop and all that? How was 14 that done?

15 Mr. O'Connell. It seems to me that they were just --
16 at this point I am not too sure whether they superimposed it,
17 I guess is the word, with that background. I am not so
18 sure at this point, it has been so long ago. That was away in 19 the mid-fifties.

20 Mr. Wides. Could we get back to the question that we had 21 started on, which was the files and where they would exist?
22 You said that the operational files from all of your dealing
23 with him would be in the Family Jewels, because they were all
24 sensitive admissions.

25 Mr. O'Connell. Yes.

1 Mr. O'Connell. No.

2 Mr. Wides. Or Max Gonzales.

3 Mr. O'Connell. No.

4 Mr. Wides. While you were down there -- and this
5 may overlap the question that Mr. Madigan asked before, but 6 I think it is a little more -- did you have any awareness of 7 any other efforts apart from Mr. Verona by Cubans in connec-
8 tion with the Agency to try and assassinate Castro?

9 Mr. O'Connell. No, none whatsoever.

10 Mr. Wides. I don't have any other questions.

11 Mr. Madigan. In your operational activities with Mr.
12 Maheu, particularly in the New York area, did you ever have con-
13 tact with a private investigator by the name of A. J.
14 Woolston-Smith?

15 Mr. O'Connell. No, I never heard of him.

16 Mr. Wides. Do you know why there were two field
17 offices in New York, two offices in Manhattan?

18 What was the difference?

19 Mr. O'Connell. The cover. One was under Treasury cover
20 and the other under Defense.

21 Mr. Wides. Were there two offices?

22 Mr. O'Connell. Why, they had them, it just grew like
23 Topsy. They had two offices in Washington, and they had two 24 offices in New York. And really the basis -- it was that that 25 was the way they started, they figured they needed two

1 different type covers because of the type of work they were 2 doing.

3 Mr. Wides. What would the New York offices do as dis-
4 tinct from the Manhattan offices, or vice versa?

5 Mr. O'Connell. Nothing. They were basically investigative 6 offices.

7 Mr. Wides. They just happened to have two? Any

8 Mr. O'Connell. They had two. ~~One was downtown right off~~
9 ~~Wall Street, and the other one at the time was at 42nd Street.~~

10 The Manhattan field office. And then they eventually merged.
11 Now they are over on ~~Madison Avenue~~ I think.

12 Mr. Wides. Thank you very much. That concludes the session.
13 And we appreciate your staying so long.
